Your new furniture...

THE JOURNEY FROM FOREST TO HOME.

The creation of fine furniture is, indeed, a journey. Starting with the finest of hardwood logs of many species, hand-selected and harvested from sustainable Midwest forests, and ending with custom-built, American-made furniture destined exclusively for your home, the Barkman

Furniture journey has many stops along the way. The pathway of the journey blends state-of-the-art technology with hand craftsmanship, passed down from one generation to the next. The result is heirloom-quality furniture that will be part of your family for generations to come.

Inception...

Only the finest selection of hardwood logs, harvested exclusively from sustainable forests, is used in the creation of Barkman hardwood furniture. In addition, select logs of white pine, red cedar, and aspen are used to create items included in the Rustic Living collections. Fresh from the sawmill, lumber will then be graded and sorted to select only the finest boards to be used to build Barkman hardwood furniture.

Preparation...

Boards are then carefully stacked and dried to assure proper seasoning before the manufacturing process begins. Once boards are adequately seasoned, they are moved to panel processing. During the production process, state-of-the-art woodworking machinery produces panel and frame components to incredibly close tolerances. Framing is the start of the process of actually building a piece of furniture; time-honored techniques for joinery, such as dovetailing, tongue-and-groove, box joints, and mortise-and-tenon, all have been used for centuries to construct furniture that stands the test of time, and also provides unique aesthetic appeal.

Production...

Once a piece of furniture is assembled, hand techniques are employed to make each piece of Barkman furniture a one-of-a-kind treasure. Hours of sanding, planing, and, in some cases distressing, insure that each piece of furniture bears the special signature of the craftsman to whom it was assigned, and that it is ready for the application of one of dozens of custom finishes.

Perfection...

The process of applying custom finishes utilizes a combination of automated spray application and hand-sanding and wiping techniques. The result is always a finish that enhances the beauty of the species of wood selected, while at the same time providing protection and beauty that will only improve with the patina that time creates.

Delivery...

At the end of the Barkman journey is furniture of unsurpassed beauty and durability, as close to perfection as humanly possible, with each piece bearing the signature of the artisan ultimately responsible for its appearance and quality. Furniture is then carefully packaged and shipped to the retailer from whom you made your selection, and delivered and set up in your home, ready to provide years of enjoyment for you and your family.

Blue Ridge

BEDROOM COLLECTION

To describe Blue Ridge as based on a slat bed, seriously understates the case! Here, a slat bed takes on a more organic personality with slats in both headboard and footboard dramatically curved, along with base rails. This curved effect is echoed in base rails of case pieces.

Post Mission

BEDROOM COLLECTION

As the name implies, Post Mission is an authentic interpretation of classic mission-period design that flourished in the early twentieth century, patterned after simple furniture found in early California missions. Post Mission features classic bow tie inlays, mortise-and-tenon joinery, and book-matched grain technique on panels. Quarter sawn oak is an option providing a most authentic grain effect.

Stains, Hardware & Features

There are literally dozens of possible wood and stain combinations for your new bedroom collection. Book matching of wood grain is found only in the highest quality furniture lines, and in fine musical instruments such as violins and guitars. Book matching is the process of matching two (or more) wood surfaces, so that the two adjoining surfaces mirror each other in appearance, giving the appearance of an open book. The two adjoining surfaces are produced from the same piece of wood, so that they have (almost) exactly the same grain pattern, but mirrored.

BEDROOM COLLECTION

Structures was designed for the purist, the person who believes "less can be more." Simplicity of line pervades every piece in the collection, and it is this simplicity that allows the grain of carefully selected hardwoods to stand up and be noticed for its uncommon and never-duplicated beauty.

Stains, Hardware & Features

There are literally dozens of possible wood and stain combinations for your new bedroom collection. While we are pleased to be able to offer a large variety, we realize this can be overwhelming and we would like to offer our assistance. We highly recommend one of the following combinations and have also highlighted several suitable hardware selections to accompany your choice.

America's Past

DINING COLLECTION

As the name implies, the America's Past collection represents furniture from the period of America's founding. English in inspiration, furniture of this period emulated that owned by the privileged classes in The Motherland. Carving, wood species selection, grain matching, table leaf detail, and hardware featured, are all period-correct.

Chateau

DINING COLLECTION

Chateau represents uncommon value in authentic European Country styling. Lines are true to the period, and as a result, are uncluttered and clean, allowing many custom finish options, including combinations of natural and weathered effects, to define the piece.

Stains, Hardware & Features

There are literally dozens of possible wood and stain combinations for your new dining collection. While we are pleased to be able to offer a large variety, we realize this can be overwhelming and we would like to offer our assistance. We highly recommend one of the following combinations and have also highlighted several suitable hardware selections to accompany your choice.

Heartland

DINING COLLECTION

As American as apple pie, Heartland represents styling developed in America's heartland in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth century. Legs are turned to faithfully replicate shapes originally designed and built in this period, and authentic pegged joinery on corners and doors is also period- correct.

Provincial Cottage

DINING COLLECTION

The furniture in the Provincial Cottage collection was inspired by that which was hand-built by our ancestors. Workmanship of the individual artisan is seen in distressed surfaces and edges, and in hand-planed top surfaces. The look is that of furniture crafted from materials close at hand, using basic hand tools, and built to last.

Stains, Hardware & Features

There are literally dozens of possible wood and stain combinations for your new dining collection. Royal Court

DINING COLLECTION

In more traditional finishes, Royal Court is reminiscent of furniture found in the estates of French royalty more than three hundred years ago, while more weathered, hand-rubbed finishes, sometimes in combinations as shown, would have been more at home in country chateaus.

There are literally dozens of possible wood and stain combinations for your new dining collection. While we are pleased to be able to offer a large variety, we realize this can be overwhelming and we would like to offer our assistance. Grand River

OFFICE COLLECTION

Definite influence from the Arts and Crafts school of design is apparent in Grand River. Gently sweeping profiles seen in Grand River pieces are characteristic of furniture inspired by the Arts and Crafts era, as it evolved from the straight lines of purely mission-inspired furniture.

Stains, Hardware & Features

There are literally dozens of possible wood and stain combinations for your new Office collection. While we are pleased to be able to offer a large variety, we realize this can be overwhelming and we would like to offer our assistance. We highly recommend one of the following combinations and have also highlighted several suitable hardware selections to accompany your choice.

Lodge Pole Pine

BEDROOM COLLECTION

Lodge Pole Pine, as the name suggests, emulates the look of lodge pole frame construction in cabins and lodges. Logs are selected for unique grain and knot characteristics, and are then hand-peeled and hand-sanded before a clear finish is applied to preserve the natural beauty of the logs. Drawer fronts feature split logs for authentic detail.

Hardware & Features

Your beautiful, rustic bedroom furniture is truly unique and each piece is built with features distinct from any other furniture collection we offer. We have highlighted these features for your consideration and offer a selection of drawer pulls, exclusive to this line of furniture.

Aspen

BEDROOM COLLECTION

Aspen is the most rustic of all Barkman bedroom groupings. The scale is massive, and the special beauty of this style is the fact that no two groups of Aspen will ever be exactly the same. Every log is hand-selected for inclusion in Aspen, and of course each log, stripped of bark, hand-sanded and sealed, and then hand-assembled, reflects nature's special signatures of shape, color and grain.
